

PARENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Parent Expectations and Code of Conduct:

- On the day of scheduled games, parents are expected to bring players to the designated soccer fields at least 30 minutes before the commencement of the game or as specified by the coach on TeamSnap.
- Parents are to bring children to all practices punctually and regularly. In the event of an absence from either a practice or a scheduled game, parents are expected to call either the coach or the team manager to explain the absence.
- During the course of a scheduled game, parents are expected to stay at least three (3) meters away from players and coaches on the sidelines.
- During all games, parents are expected to encourage the team with applause and words of praise for the efforts of all team members.
- Under NO circumstances are parents ever permitted to engage in any form of verbal, racial or physical abuse towards any other person while representing the Toronto Athletic FC organization.
- Parents are encouraged to assist the Club in taking all necessary precautions to prevent its players, officials and spectators from threatening or assaulting any person present at the game.
- Parents are encouraged to remind their children that persistent misconduct, abusive language, violent conduct, persistent criticism or disputing of referee's decisions, and deliberate physical contact carry automatic suspensions and fines and should, therefore, be avoided at all times.
- Parents are reminded not to coach from the sidelines during practices or games.
- Team Rosters are created only by our Coaching Staff and parents are to provide support to their child and child's team.
- Finally a reminder to us that as adults, we have the responsibility to act as models of sportsmanship and fair play and show our children, by direct example, civilized and mature standards of behaviour.
- As parents, you are responsible, therefore, to adhere to the above-mentioned standards of conduct otherwise, your association with this club shall be terminated, and your child shall be dismissed from the team.
- Questions and concerns can be directed to our Academy Management Team at academytafc@gmail.com

Please note that infringement of this request could result in dismissing that parent's player from the team.
